

The Chicago rukus begins this morning.

"AMERICA FIRST" and "Safety First" are mighty high interchangeable terms.

In his St. Louis speech last week, Teddy did surely hand one to the German Alliance.

CAN Taft and Teddy amalgamate? This is one question that answers itself definitely and peremptorily.

The Republican choice seems to halt between a blatherskite and a sphynx. It's a hard line to how to that is put before the faithful.

The reports from Chicago Wednesday morning indicate that the Republicans will nominate Hughes and the Progressives will name Teddy. And the fur will fly!

HADLEY is to place Hughes in nomination for President. Herby is persistent and will again try for a seat in the band wagon; the bumps his fall gave him four years ago are gone, and "hope springs eternal," etc.

If Roosevelt, as Rev. Jenkins Lloyd Jones says, is "the Billy Sunday of American politics," and Billy is "the Teddy of religion," what a strong combination they would make in the ruling of the political and spiritual elite.

The Anti-Saloon League wants to do away with the Referendum where it stands in the way of the League's bigoted, fanatical purposes. This is natural to the organization which would trample under foot every vestige of personal liberty pertaining to you and me if necessary to accomplish its pharaonic ends.

In this issue of the REGISTER Hon. Walter L. Hensley makes formal announcement of his candidacy for reelection to Congress. He has made a record for good service, not only to his immediate constituents, but to the country at large. While not in every instance in exact accord with my limited knowledge and perhaps imperfect judgment in minor questions, I bear hearty testimony to his Democracy and intelligence and fair intent.

V. V. ING of Wayne County has filed his declaration with the Secretary of State as a candidate for Judge of the Twenty-First Judicial Circuit on the Republican ticket. In speaking of Mr. Ing's Candidacy the Greenville Sun in its last issue says:

The circuit is slightly Democratic, the normal majority being something like 340, but Mr. Ing's friends feel that his high standing as a lawyer and a public spirited citizen, and his exceptional qualifications for the place, will make it an easy matter to overcome this slight margin.

That's what you might term "whistling through the graveyard." The Sun well knows, if it knows anything of conditions in the circuit, that Ing, nor any other Republican, will have even a "look in" against Judge Dearing next November.

FREDERICKTOWN Democrat-News: "O. L. Munger of Piedmont, Democratic candidate for nomination for Congress, delivered an address here Saturday at the Court House. He had come for the purpose of speaking to the school at the picnic grounds but the rain prevented and his many admirers persuaded him to speak at the Court House where a large crowd gathered despite the downpour. Mr. Munger did not talk politics, stating that it hardly seemed proper after coming for the purpose of talking to the young people of the school. His talk was along the line of education and social betterment and his address was very well received by all who heard him. The things he said and the manner in which he said them branded him as a big man and capable of doing big things."

Bootleggers' Joy—"There's a Reason."

When citizens grow tired of prohibition, the hardest job the authorities can tackle is to try to enforce the "dry" law. Take the case of West Virginia, according to this dispatch from Charleston to the Baltimore Sun:

Bootleggers and speak-easy proprietors all over the state are jubilant over the possibility that all the special officers employed to enforce the state prohibition laws will be dismissed because of lack of funds in the state treasury. Of the $15,000 to the credit of the state prohibition department, but $365.86 now remains, and there will be no more money forthcoming before July 1.

Officers of the state prohibition department are making desperate efforts to keep the officers at work, enforcing the prohibition laws. They claim there will be sufficient assurance of funds from private sources to enable them to retain all the officers. It is known that there are a number of wealthy men in the state willing to contribute liberally.

We had some fine rains last week. Wheat has come out considerably. I was talking to Geo. Collins who lives on Crane Pond. He said his wheat was good.

I called on Bulletin. He took me to see his garden. It is surely fine. He planted the early triumph potatoes. He has a good prospect for potatoes. Chas. Bolch has his store house about completed. It looks fine and up-to-date in every respect. Gus Funk is working away on his new store building. Add Reese is the busiest man I know. He needs more help in his store. His wife (not Add) keeps the best eating house on the road.

I called on Mrs. Joe Williams while at Farmington. I hardly knew her. She is looking fine. I knew her in her girlhood days. Then she only weighed 120; now she weighs 157 lbs. Mr. Williams is down south for his health and is improving slowly.

The farmers have cut some wheat down about Charleston. Wheat is fairly good all the way.

I met with hundreds of school girls last week returning home from the Cape and Fredericktown. This is always a sad time for them for some will never meet again.

I am glad to see my young friend, Oscar Blackworth, in Wayne county, enter the race for Representative. He is fine young man, a good christian gentleman and has many friends in this county who will be glad to see him elected.

Material is being hauled on the grounds for the new school building. In my communication last week I mentioned the names of the pupils who entered the declamatory contest we failed to get the names of Paul Lovelace and Bessie Johnson, and also the motto used by the Juniors should have been, "Water and Glimp." Our new school building will be of brick veneer. The old building will be torn down and part of the material used for out buildings.

Graves & Stamp have painted their store building which adds much to its appearance.

L. L. Schmidt, who has been on the sick list, is able to be out again.

Mrs. N. R. White went to Piedmont Thursday.

W. T. and J. H. Stevenson were at Tazee last week.

E. W. Graves was in St. Louis this week.

Prof. L. E. Whiteside, from Sedalia, Mo., is spending his vacation here and assisting his brother in the Post Office.

John Howard and family spent Sunday at his father's farm, near Piedmont.

Jas. Maddock went to Ironton Thursday.

Miss Myrtle Bercham has gone to Piedmont to visit her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Seals.

Mr. Ruby White has gone to Cape Girardeau to attend the summer term of the State Normal.

Mrs. Lulu Carroll and daughter, Gladys, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home at Shreveport, La.

Mrs. John Reed and daughter, Stelle, went to Piedmont last week to visit Mrs. Wm. Seals.

Chris Poston and wife were called here from Flat River, Sunday, to attend the funeral of his sister's child.

again in confinement on account of insanity.

A. L. Daniel, candidate for sheriff, is in town to-day looking after votes. He has been constable of this township the greater part of the past ten years and made a good officer.

Andrew Sutton, of Annapolis, who is working in Madison, Ill., is at home sick, but is improving. His brother, Ed, who works with the bridge carpenters, is also at home sick.

H. A. Loyd and family and W. H. Dunn and family spent three days of the past week fishing on Black river. They had a good time and caught plenty of fish.

Gus Funk is painting his new store house and will soon move therein.

A. Reese loaded out several cars of ties last week. He is a candidate to succeed himself as county judge and has a good show to win.

John T. Webb is in St. Louis today. Chas. Hampton and Vest Hackworth went to Piedmont Sunday.

Jack Johnson, a widower on Bear Creek, writes "Bulletin" to find him a wife. He is a farmer and good member of the Holiness church. Who wants him?
